Brachot 62a

רב כהנא על גנא תותיה פורייה דרב שמעיה דשח ושחק
ועשה צרכיו אמר ליה דמי פומיה דאבא כדלא שריף
תבשילא א«ל כהנא הכא את פוק דלאו אורח ארעא
אמר לו תורה היא וללמוד אני צריך

Rav Kahana entered and lay beneath Rav's bed. He heard him chatting and laughing [with his wife], and fulfilling his desire. Rav Kahana said: one would think that Abba's mouth had never "sipped the dish" before. He said to him: Kahana, are you here? Leave, because it's rude! He replied: It is Torah, and a matter I need to learn.
